

FACTS, FIGURES AND DATA | VERSION: September 2026

Headquarters:	Since the company was founded in 1918, its headquarters have been in Duisburg, and since 2006 in Duisburg's inner harbour.
Management:	Gerald Kassner • Since 1997: Chairman of the Management Board • Starting in January 2027: Member of the advisory board Steffen Kassner • Up to and including August 2026: Managing Director • From January 2027: Member of the advisory board Detlef Schroer • Since 2026: Chief Sales Officer Markus Förster • Since 2026: Chief Commercial Officer Sascha Leutner • Since July 2026: Managing Director • Starting in January 2027: Chief Executive Officer
Revenue and guest numbers in the 2024/25 Fiscal year:	2,9 billion euros and 2,05 million guests
Number of employees:	Over 700 employees
Corporate group:	Around 2,200 employees worldwide – the corporate group has several holdings in hotels in various destinations and more than 70 of its own travel agencies. The company also holds majority shares in the airlines Sundair and FlyAir41, as well as the long-haul travel specialist Explorer.
Sales:	Almost exclusively through travel agency partners in Germany, Austria, Switzerland and the Netherlands.
About schauinsland-reisen:	schauinsland-reisen is a medium-sized, independent tour operator and currently ranks third among German flight package tour operators. schauinsland-reisen has grown steadily in recent years and is regarded in the industry as a pioneer of 'dynamic packaging'.
Holiday regions/destination areas:	Egypt, Albania, Andalusia, Bali, Balearic Islands, Bulgaria, Greece, Italy, Canary Islands, Kenya, Croatia, Malta, Maldives, Morocco, Mauritius, Mexico, Montenegro, Oman, Portugal, Zanzibar, Seychelles, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Tunisia, Turkey, USA (Florida), United Arab Emirates, Vietnam,

FACTS, FIGURES AND DATA | VERSION: September 2026

Cyprus.

With individual/self-arranged arrival in Germany, Austria, Netherlands, Belgium.

Hotel partners:

More than 5,000 hotels in over 60 European holiday and long-haul destinations, including almost all well-known hotel chains worldwide.

Flight offer:

schauinsland-reisen offers departures from almost all German, Austrian and Swiss airports with all renowned airlines.

ESG Commitment:

schauinsland-reisen is involved in a range of projects and industry initiatives both at its headquarters in Duisburg and in its destinations. The selection of these activities is guided by the company's materiality assessment and relevant United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

- 2024: formation of the ESG team
- 2025: Conduction of a materiality assessment
- Q1-Q2 2026: green house gas emission tracking for schauinsland-reisen GmbH
- Q3-Q4 2026 – Q3 2027: green house gas emission tracking to additional entities
- Dec 2025: Fundraising campaign and implementation through Sept 2026: WWF "Ghost Nets in the Mediterranean" fundraising project
- Aug 2025 – June 2026: Biodiversity strategy industry project + practical project with R2 starting Aug 2026; expected duration: 1 year
- 2025: Construction of a school building in Zanzibar at Mfenesini Primary School with Fly and Help, construction + fundraising trip – opening trip in June 2026
- 2026/27: School construction on the Tanzanian mainland with Fly and Help, construction + fundraising trip in May 2026; school opening planned for 2027